Death of a Baggagemaster.

Mr. John Bergin, baggagemaster on the Washington and Ohio division of the Southern Railway, was found dead is a fine likeness of General Shipp, is handsomely executed and is highly praised by all who have seen it. in the yard at Bluemont at an early hour this morning. He was picked up by tellow-employes and a physician sum-moned. The latter, after having examined the remains, announced that death resulted from natural causes. Later the body was placed aboard a train and brought to this city. The deceased re-sided at No. 110 north Fayette street. decree confirming report of Commis-sioner Taylor and for distribution. He leaves a widow and five children. Mr. Bergin was a well-known citizen and was popular with his many ac-quaintances in this city and along the line of the Washington and Ohio road Harding and the unknown heirs of Wm.

Incorrect Reports.

It is to be regretted that the Washington papers continue to publish sensa-tional and incorrect paragraphs concern-Cox have returned from Paeonian Springs, Loudoun county. The former ing Alexandria. An intimation that Mr. Frank Summers, whose dead body was recently found in the cemetery, had been killed by dogs is entirely incorrect, as the coroner, who viewed the re-mains, stated most positively that death had occurred several hours before the dogs had attacked the body. The statements that the banking firm of Burke & trast to the weather which often pre-Herbert will raze their present quarters at the southeast corner of King and Fairfax streets, and put up a handsome building on the site, and that a new building for the First National Bank is not an improbability, are also denied by the specific type of the street o those most interested.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning.

A resident of Fairfax county, arrested with driving a team on a sidewalk, was the intruder and procuring a pistol startby Officers Smith and Allen charged dismissed.

A white man, arrested by acting Lieutenant Knight and Officer Beach at the instance of his wife, was dismissed, the charge having been withdrawn. A colored man, arrested by Officers

Lyles and Arrington charged with assaulting a member of his race, was fined $5, and the plaintiff $2.50.

A colored man, arrested by Officers Arrington and Nicholson for being drunk in the street, was fined $2.50.

Fireman Fatally Injured.

John Sullivan, fireman on No. 97, the Southern Railway's fast mail train, was fatally injured at Staunton river bridge yesterday afternoon while on the south-bound run. Sullivan was leaning out of the cab window in order to get a view of a hot box when the train entered the bridge over Staunton river. The man's head came in contact with the end beam of the bridge and his skull was crushed.

Steamer Middlesex.

The new steamer Middlesex of the Weems line arrived last night from Bal-The Middletimore and river landings. The Middle-sex is the latest addition to this line, and since the boat was put in commission it has been running on the route between Baltimore and Fredericksburg. The steamer is of the paddle-wheel class, minus a walking beam, the engines which propel it being in the hold. The Mid-dlesey left on her return the dlesex left on her return trip at 4:30 this evening.

Alleged Robbery.

Robert Smith, a young man, appeared at the station house this morning and swore out a warrant for the arrest of William Robinson whom he charged with robbing him of $16. The plaintiff says he and the accused were in a boarding house in the southwestern part of the city last night and Smith althat Robinson took the money from his coat pocket.

Colds Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to an avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthead my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by all druggists.
